The Office begins immediately with the Psalms, which are said with their proper Antiphons:

Ant. I believe verily to see the goodness of the Lord * in the land of the living.
Psalm 27. Dominus illuminatio.

Ant. Teach us to number our days, * that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.
Psalm 90:1-12. Domine, refugium.

At the end of each Psalm is sung or said:

V. Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord.
R. And let light perpetual shine upon them.

Canticle after the First Lesson

Ego dixi in dimidio.

The Song of Hezekiah Isaiah 38:10-20

I SAID in the cutting off of my days, I shall go to the gates of the grave: *
I am deprived of the residue of my years.
I said, I shall not see the Lord, even the Lord, in the land of the living: *
I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants of the world.
Mine age is departed, * and is removed from me as a shepherd's tent;
I have cut off like a weaver my life: he will cut me off with pining sickness: *
from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.
I reckoned till morning, that, as a lion, so will he break all my bones: *
from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.
Like a crane or a swallow, so did I chatter: * I did mourn as a dove.
Mine eyes fail with looking upward: * O Lord, I am oppressed; undertake for me.
What shall I say? He hath both spoken unto me, and himself hath done it: *
I shall go softly all my years in the bitterness of my soul.
O Lord, by these things men live, and in all these things is the life of my spirit: *
so wilt thou recover me, and make me to live.
Behold, for peace I had great bitterness; but thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption: * for thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back.

For the grave cannot praise thee; death cannot celebrate thee: *
they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth.
The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day: *
the father to the children shall make known thy truth.
The Lord was ready to save me: * therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments all the days of our life in the house of the Lord.

V. Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord.
R. And let light perpetual shine upon them.

Mattins: Ant. on the Benedictus

I am the resurrection and the life, * saith the Lord: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me, shall never die.

At the conclusion of the Benedictus instead of the GLORIA, is said:

V. Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord.
R. And let light perpetual shine upon them.

After the Apostles Creed, and the Our Father, the following Preces are said before the Collect

V. Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord.
R. And let light perpetual shine upon them.

V. From the gates of hell,
R. Deliver their souls, O Lord.

V. I believe verily to see the goodness of the Lord.
R. In the land of the living.

One or more of the Collects for the Dead are said:

O GOD, the Creator and Redeemer of all them that believe: grant unto the souls of thy servants and handmaids the remission of all their sins; that as they have ever desired thy merciful pardon, so by the supplications of their brethren they may receive the same; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

O GOD, whose nature and property is ever to have mercy and to forgive: have compassion on the souls of thy servants and handmaids; and grant unto them the remission of all their sins, that, being delivered from the bonds of this our mortal nature, they may be found worthy to pass into everlasting life; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

O LORD, the Maker and Redeemer of all believers: Grant to the faithful departed (especially thy servant / handmaid N.) all the unsearchable benefits of thy Son's Passion; that in the Day of his Appearing thy faithful may be manifested as thy true children; through the same Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

The Office concludes immediately after the Collect(s) as follows:

V. Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord.
R. And let light perpetual shine upon them.

V. May they rest in peace.
R. Amen.

Evensong: Pss 130; 139:1-11 Job 19:21-27a Rev 1:9-18

The Office begins immediately with the Psalms, which are said with their proper Antiphons:

Ant. If thou wilt be extreme * to mark what is done amiss, O Lord, who may abide it?
Psalm 130. De profundis.

Ant. Thy hand shall lead me, * and thy right hand shall hold me,
Psalm 139 (1-11). Domine, probasti.

At the end of each Psalm is sung or said:

V. Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord.

R. And let light perpetual shine upon them.

First Evensong: *Ant. on the Magnificat

I heard a voice from Heaven, saying, * Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord.

At the conclusion of both the Magnificat and the Nunc Dimittis, instead of the GLORIA, is said:

V. Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord.

R. And let light perpetual shine upon them.
